Dear sirs:

For archaeological reasons, due to the fact that Mr. James Churchward, author of the Mu Series, whose editions you have been printing, refers to our Mexican Ancient Culture in one of his books, particularly to some Towns surrounding to Mexico City, and whose data coincide with the real data we have on this matter, we are very interested in get in contact with him. Besides, we presume that he has inherited the memories of Mr. William Niven (1850-1937) who discovered some prehistoric remains in the Valley of Mexico in 1911 and in Guanajuato, Mex. in 1891.

We also think that it is possible that Mr. Churchward knows about the pre-hispanic collection Mr. Niven found and where it is.

We would like to stress that this kind of information is very important for us, so any pertinent data you can furnish to us with, will be very high appreciated.

Looking forward to hear from you in due course, we remain,

Very truly yours,

Paperback Library has given us your name as the Administrator of the estate of Mr. James Churchward, author of the Mu Series, issued by the above editors.

We have read all the Mu Series where Mr. Churchward refers to our Mexican Ancient Culture and some places surrounding to Mexico City, discovered by Mr. William Niven, an american mineralogist, who was born in Bellskill, Lanarkshire, Scotland, on October 6, 1850 and died in Austin Texas on June 3, 1937. Mr. Niven also found the remains of some prehistoric people.

In this regard we are requesting your invaluable cooperation in order you to furnish us with the data you may have, due to we presume Mr. Churchward knew about the collection of prehispanic pieces Mr. Niven found in Mexico City, so we are very interested in knowing the site where such a collection is and study the possibility to make a visit to.

We want to stress the importance that this information represents for us, so your kind attention will be very high appreciated.
